

Friends of the Arboretum is an important support group that helps the UW–Madison Arboretum fulfill its mission. Membership in the Friends shows your interest in the principles and practice of ecological restoration.

It is also an opportunity to join in a variety of workshops, field trips and special events. The strength of the Friends lies in its members' willingness to support the Arboretum with their time, talents and membership dues. Many Friends also volunteer for activities such as plant propagation and restoration projects.

Friends of the Arboretum Membership Contribution

- Member $35—basic benefits (NewsLeaf monthly newsletter; discounts—Native Plant Sale, Arboretum bookstore, Arboretum classes, Earth Focus Day Camp, Ecological Restoration magazine; invitations to luncheon lectures, trips guided by experts; special interest groups, such as nature photography)
- Supporting Member $60—basic benefits; $5 bookstore certificate
- Sustaining Member $100—basic benefits; $5 bookstore certificate; special gift
- Legacy Member $250—basic benefits; $10 bookstore certificate; special gift
- Patron $500—basic benefits; $25 bookstore certificate; special gift
- Director's Circle $1,000—basic benefits; $50 bookstore certificate; special invitational events

Please make check payable to the Friends of the Arboretum, Inc. and mail to: 1207 Seminole Highway, Madison, WI 53711. Your contribution is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____