

Leopold Restoration Awards

Past Recipients

John T. Curtis Award for Career Excellence in Community-Based Restoration

Wayne Pauly
Mark Martin
Richard Henderson
Jeb Barzen

Virginia M. Kline Award for Community-Based Restoration

Sisters of Saint Benedict
Madison Audubon Society
Blue Mounds Area Project
Chiwaukee Prairie Preservation
Fund, Inc.

Sand County Foundation
Friends of Troy Gardens

Henry C. Greene Award for Innovative Approaches in Restoration

Jim Reinartz
Tim Ehrlinger
George Archibald
Russ Hefty

John Nolen Award for Excellence in Ecological Restoration

American Family Insurance
Company Headquarters
Wisconsin Chapter Trout Unlimited,
Inter-Fluve Inc., Water Resources
Consulting and Wisconsin DNR
Dick and Jane Dana
Tom and Kathy Brock
Wisconsin DNR, Bureau of Endangered Resources
Rose and Jim Sime

LRA Program Sponsor Benefits

$5,000—Event Sponsors

- Recognition as major event sponsor in all event-related materials to include invitations, all press releases, and any media contacts
- Event recognition to include organization logo and name in invitation, program, announcement during ceremony, sign on table, and display recognition at event and in Arboretum Visitor Center.
- Profile in NewsLeaf, the Friends of the Arboretum newsletter reaching 3,000 households each month
- Up to 20 tickets (two tables) for awards event

$2,500 —LRA Corporate Sponsors

- Up to ten tickets (one table) for awards event
- All other benefits as listed for Event Sponsors

$1,000—LRA Table Hosts

- Event recognition to include name in program, announcement during ceremony, sign on table, and display recognition at event
- Up to 10 tickets (one table) for awards event

$500—LRA Business Sponsors

- Event recognition to include name in program and display recognition at event
- Four tickets for awards event

$250—LRA Friends' Sponsors

- Event recognition to include name in program
- Two tickets for awards event

"A land ethic, then, reflects the existence of an ecological conscience, and this in turn reflects a conviction of individual responsibility for the health of the land."

Aldo Leopold